DESCRIPTION OF THE TOUR

Discover the culture, history, fauna and flora of the island. Learn about the ancient temples of the great Tahitian seafaring society built around 1000AD & learn about the local legends while visiting ancient archeological sites such as the Marae "temple", and the "Turtle stone", located in Bora Bora's very own rain forest. In Faanui valley you'll spot small fruit plantations and learn about some of the local flora including medicine plants used by the ancient Medicine man, such as the Nono and the Hotu tree.

Explore also the World War 2 sites of the Cannons and the bunkers and find out why Americans used Bora Bora as a staging area during WWII and their influence on the locals of Bora Bora.

Other stops include various look out points around the island, such as "Top of the World " where you'll get to see Bora Bora on the West and East side and the Matira look out from where you'll see all various colors of the lagoon.

At Mami Ruta's Pareo Atelier see how local handmade pareos are done.

Note :

The tour involves some off road driving and is not recommended for people with back problems, young children or pregnant women

Pick up and drop off times may vary depending on your hotel's location.
